Petersbourg, January 11.

AN Express is newly arrived at Moscow from Constantinople, with an Account that the Differences between the Czar and Grand Signior, relating to the Expedition made by the former into Persia, are in a Train of Accommodation; the Porte having declared they will concern themselves no more with the Disagreements between the Russians, and the Tartars and Persians, Assurances being given them by the Czar not to make another Campaign in the East without fresh Provocation. Notwithstanding the Turkish Ambassadour, who came with the Czar to Moscow, has given his Majesty to understand, that the Porte has actually countermanded their Troops which were ordered towards Trebizond, the Czar's Forces are nevertheless recruiting throughout Russia; to which Purpose, Orders are come hither to augment all the Foot Regiments to 3000 Men; and to send Returns every Week to the Secretary at War, containing an exact Account of the Condition of each Regiment. It is reported, that the Czar intends to augment the Salaries of all the Civil Officers, viz. 1000 Rubels a Year to each Privy-Councillour, 500 Rubels to every other Minister, and so in Proportion to all Inferior Officers; and that his Majesty will allow to all Ambassadours, Envoys, and Foreign Ministers at his Court, each from 100 to 1000 Rubels a Year.

Madrid, Jan. 18. The Prince of Asturias returned hither from the Pardo on the 11th Instant in the Morning to visit the Princess his Consort, who is now perfectly recovered of her late Indisposition: The Prince went back the same Day to the Pardo. On the 12th. the Marquess de Grimaldo Secretary of State came hither from the Pardo, to assist at a Junta of the Ministers held in the House of the Marquess de Campo Florido, who was indisposed, in order to settle the Fund for the publick Services of the Year. It is said that the Ambassadour of Malta has represented to this Court, that if the Succours which are promised to be sent from hence, be deferred till after the Turks are put to Sea with their Fleet, it will be difficult to land there the Troops designed for the Assistance of that Island, and therefore desires such Measures may be taken that they may be all there before the End of March next. The Officers of the Royal Household who were sent to the Frontiers to wait the Arrival of Mademoiselle de Beaujolois, have stopt at Yrum: 'Tis said that Princess was taken ill on the Road, which occasioned her to make very slow and easy Journeys, and had retarded her Arrival at Yrum so soon as was expected. An Opera is to be represented at the Theatre of the Buen Retiro, and a Consort of Musick is also to be performed there when that Princess makes her Entry into this City; there are also to be Fireworks on that Occasion. On the 16th in the Evening the Duke de Popoli died here after a few Days Illness of a Quinsy attended with a Fever, which at first his Physicians made slight of; his Body was conveyed last Night in a private Manner to the Convent of Capuchins of St. Antonio, to be deposited there without Pomp, according to his Desire expressed in his Will. By his Death the Office of Chief Major-Domo to the Prince of Asturias, and of Captain of a Troop in the Italian Regiment of Life Guards are become vacant. The Prince de Petrosano his only Son, who is an Exempt in the same Troop of Guards solicites to succeed his Father as Captain of it. The Courier is returned from Bayonne, whither he had been dispatched with a Passport for the Chevalier d'Orleans, who is expected here the 21st Instant.

Paris, Jan. 30. The French Academy will not proceed to the Election of a new Member, in the Room of the late Abbé de Dangeau, till the Beginning of next Month; but 'tis the general Opinion, that the Choice will fall upon M. de Morville, Secretary of State for Marine Affairs, Son of M. d'Armenonville, Keeper of the Seals. Scarcely a Day passes that M. de Landivisiau, Master of Requests, does not go to Versailles to attend the Cardinal du Bois, and transact with him Matters for the Service of the India Company. A Captain of a Ship has been committed lately to the Bastille, for omitting the Execution of certain Orders he had received from Court. . . . The late Prince de Vaudemont has by Will bequeathed Commerce and all its rich Dependencies to the Hereditary Prince of Lorraine. . . . 'Tis said that a great Number of Edicts, Letters Patents, Declarations, and Ordinances, lie ready to be registered at the Bed of Justice, which the King is to hold at his Majesty.
